

The power wrist™

SELF-TRAINING
GOLF AID

HELPS GOLFERS DEVELOP & MAINTAIN A PERFECTLY SQUARE CLUBFACE.

The POWER WRIST™ is the easiest to use self-training golf aid on the market today. From the beginner to the professional alike The POWER WRIST helps develop and maintain the fundamentally correct wrist "cocking" action often missing from the average golfer's swing.

Open or closed wrist hinging during the golf swing is the most common cause for slicing or hooking. The POWER WRIST™ helps develop and maintain the proper square "cocking" of the wrist which keeps the clubface square throughout the entire swing, which in turn enhances accuracy and increase distance.

- Assists in developing correct muscle memory, for lasting improvement
- Helps elevate the entire game, from full swing to putting and chipping
- Assists in maintaining a firm left wrist throughout the entire swing
- Helps lower golf scores through increased accuracy and distance
- Trains golfers to develop and maintain a square clubface throughout the entire swing
- A glove must be worn to achieve the full benefits of The POWER WRIST™

The POWER WRIST™ fits neatly in a golf bag and can be worn during all practice sessions; both at the range or on the course. Try The POWER WRIST™ and start improving your entire game today. 100% satisfaction is guaranteed.
